Numb. 6617.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 16. to Tuesday September 19. 1727.

St. James's, September 19.

THE following humble Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been preſented to His Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Leitrim, at the General Aſſizes held at Carrick, in and for the ſaid County, on Monday the 14th Day of Auguſt, 1727.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on your peaceable and happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, which alone could alleviate our unfeigned Sorrow and Concern for the Loſs of our late gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory.

When we reflect on your Majeſty, happy in a Royal Conſort of moſt exalted Vertue and Goodneſs, and bleſſed with a numerous Iſſue, brought up and educated under the Conduct and Example of ſo much Wiſdom and Piety; and your known Love of our Religious and Civil Rights; and the tender and undivided Affection, which upon all Occaſions you have ſhewn for your People; it leaves us nothing more to wiſh for, but the long Continuance of your Majeſty's happy Reign, and the Government of your Poſterity over us.

And as it has been the peculiar Happineſs of your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects of this County to be free from all Party-Diſtinctions, and to have at all Times unanimouſly adhered to the Principles upon which we were ſo wonderfully delivered, and are ſtill ſecured from the fatal Influence of Popery and Arbitrary Power; we beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, we ſhall, upon the ſame Principles, with our Lives and Fortunes, ſtand by and ſupport your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law eſtabliſhed, againſt all your Enemies whatſoever.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Mayo, at a General Aſſizes held for the ſaid County at Caſtlebar, the 4th Day of Auguſt, 1727.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being truly ſenſible of the great Happineſs we enjoyed under the Government of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, beg Leave to take this Opportunity of condoling with your Majeſty on the Loſs of your Royal Father, and of approaching your moſt ſacred Perſon with our humble and ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

The Continuance of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoyed under our late moſt excellent King; your Majeſty's Royal Declaration of preſerving our Religious and Civil Rights, and the Progreſs your Majeſty has made towards obtaining a ſafe and honourable Peace, ſhew to your People the Goodneſs and Greatneſs of your Mind, and call upon us all for the utmoſt Returns of Duty, Gratitude, and Obedience.

From a Reign thus happily eſtabliſhed, and from a Proſpect of a laſting Succeſſion, which we pray to God may be perpetually derived to your People from your Majeſty and our moſt illuſtrious Queen, whoſe Benignity has reached, and whoſe Virtues are celebrated in the remoteſt of your Majeſty's Dominions, we promiſe ourſelves as great a Degree of Felicity as this Nation has in any Age been bleſſed with. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty,

[Price Two Pence.]

Majeſty, that if any reſtleſs Spirits ſhould endeavour to deprive us of theſe invaluable Bleſſings, by ſowing Jealouſies, or raiſing groundleſs Fears in the Minds of your Majeſty's People, as all ſuch Attempts muſt be looked upon to have a View to a Popiſh Pretender, we ſhall be ready with our Lives and Fortunes to ſupport your Majeſty, and the Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, againſt him and all his Adherents, and upon every other Occaſion to manifeſt the Duty, Loyalty and Obedience that is ſo juſtly due from all your Subjects to the beſt of Kings.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Juſtices of the Peace, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Grand-Jury and other Gentlemen Inhabitants of the City of Kilkenny in Ireland, met together at the General Aſſizes held for the ſaid City, the 24th of July 1727.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly preſume to lay hold on this firſt publick Occaſion, of ſignifying to your ſacred Majeſty the real Concern with which we are all affected for the Loſs of our late glorious Sovereign, to the Influences of whoſe moſt auſpicious Reign we acknowledge to owe the greateſt Bleſſings of a free and happy People, the Preſervation and Settlement of our Religious and Civil Rights. And as nothing but your Majeſty's ſpeedy and peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors could ſecure and confirm theſe Bleſſings to us, ſo nothing beſide that could diſſipate the Fears and aſſwage the Sorrows of Hearts truly grateful and ſtrictly loyal. It is but a juſt Offering we make of our Lives and Fortunes to your Majeſty's Service, when we extend our Views to the numberleſs Bleſſings that muſt neceſſarily be derived on us from your Majeſty's experienced Skill in good Government, from your powerful Alliances Abroad, (and what is the Joy and Pride of your Subjects) from the ſure Proſpect we have of an uninterrupted Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe. May your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort have a long and happy Reign over us; may you long defend the Faith and Liberty, the eſtabliſhed Religion, and wholeſome Laws, of theſe Nations; may all your Subjects be, as we are, zealouſly united for the Honour and Intereſt of your Government; and may the Britiſh Crown be worn in its brighteſt Luſtre by your Royal Family to the lateſt Poſterity.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Corporation of Clonmell, in the County of Tipperary.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Free Burgeſſes, and Commons of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Clonmell, beg Leave to pay this juſt Tribute of our hearty Concern and Sorrow for the Death of our late Sovereign your Royal Father, of glorious Memory; and at the ſame Time to acknowledge, with all due Thankfulneſs, the great Goodneſs of Divine Providence in having ſo amply ſupplied to us that Loſs in your Royal Perſon, by placing your Majeſty, to the univerſal Joy of your Subjects, on the Imperial Throne of your Anceſtors.

We ask Leave, moſt Gracious Sovereign, with all Humility, to lay at your Royal Feet, as the firſt Fruits of our Duty, this our ſolemn and publick Profeſſion; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our chearful and ready Obedience, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport your Majeſty's undoubted Right and Title to the Throne of your Sacred Majeſty's illuſtrious Family.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Seneſchal and Inhabitants of the Borough of Downpatrick, in the County of Downe and Kingdom of Ireland.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Seneſchal and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Downpatrick, do, with great Humility and Chearfulneſs, congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

The Loſs of your Royal Father, our moſt excellent King, (whoſe Memory will ever be accounted Sacred among us) would have rendered us inconſolable, if we had not at the ſame Time the Comfort to know that he was ſucceeded by a Son, who inherits all the Virtues of his Perſon, as well as the Honours of his Crown; who has the Advantage of a long Experience in the Laws and Conſtitution of our Country, and whoſe well known Clemency, Reſolution, and Vigilance, give us the joyful Aſſurance that he will adorn the Throne he ſits on, and ſecure to his People a ſolid and laſting Happineſs.

We cannot omit, upon this Occaſion, to expreſs the entire Satisfaction which fills our Hearts upon the Contemplation of thoſe eminent Vertues which place our gracious Queen higher in the Eſteem and Love of her People, than the moſt abſolute and extended Dominion upon Earth could do: And we view, with a Pleaſure that knows no Bounds, that Proſpect of Happineſs which your numerous and hopeful Iſſue give us, not only for ourſelves but our lateſt Poſterity.

The unanimous Conſent and univerſal Acclamations of your People which accompanied your Majeſty to the Throne, will undoubtedly diſappoint the Deſigns of your Enemies, and clearly ſhew to all Mankind how falſe and groundleſs their Inſinuations are, who may endeavour to perſwade Foreign Powers to diſturb your Majeſty's Government by by the Misrepresentations of the Duty and Loyalty of your well-affected Subjects.

And here we most humbly beg Leave to make a Tender unto your Majesty of our Lives and Fortunes, with the greatest Sincerity our Hearts are capable of, for the Preservation of your Majesty's Just and Royal Rights, and for the opposing all those who may attempt to disquiet your Majesty's Reign, or obstruct the Interest of your People.

The following humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Stranrawer, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Stair, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Stranrawer, with Hearts full of the greatest Affection to your Majesty, congratulate your happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Father, whose Loss we most sincerely condole: We have been always made to hope by one of our Number, (who has ever been distinguished by his Attachment to your Royal Family) that whatever Grief might at first fill our Hearts for the losing so good a King, as was his late Majesty of glorious Memory, inexpressible Joy would succeed as soon as you should mount the Throne.

The Declarations you have been pleased to make, and the wise Steps already taken, sufficiently convince us of your Majesty's consummate Wisdom, your Love to your People, and that our Hopes were not vain.

We have now no more to wish, but that it would please God to bless your Majesty with a long and prosperous Reign, exceeding that of the best and greatest of your Ancestors; the Queen your Royal Consort with long Life; and that He would preserve your Royal Issue; that these Nations may never want a Prince of your illustrious Family to rule them, even to the latest Posterity: These are the ardent Wishes of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal, most faithful and dutiful Subjects and Servants,
The Magistrates and Town-Council of your Burgh of Stranrawer.

Signed in their Presence, by

The following humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Capital and Inferior Burgesses, and all the rest of the ancient Corporation of Aldeburgh, in the County of Suffolk, has been presented to His Majesty by Samuel Lowe, Esq; and Thomas Betts, Esq; their Recorder, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly crave Leave to approach your Sacred Majesty, and to express our great Grief and Concern for the Death of your late Royal Father, of blessed Memory; and we also, with Hearts full of Joy and Zeal, congratulate your Majesty, and our most gracious Queen Caroline, on your happy Accessions to the Throne of Great Britain. When we take a View of your early Bravery in the Field, and of your Clemency and Lenity of your Government when Regent of these your Dominions; and when we read your tender Declaration of the Preservation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, both in Church and State, and your affectionate Speech to your Parliament of lessening the Expence of this Nation, our Hearts are filled with Admiration: And these claim from us an humble and dutiful Acknowledgement of Thanks for all these gracious Favours bestowed upon us; and we, in the most humble Manner, take this Opportunity to assure your Majesty of our Loyalty, Duty, Allegiance and Obedience to you, and your Royal Family: And we heartily pray, that God of his infinite Goodness and Mercy may give you Health and Length of Days to reign over us; and that you and your Posterity may ever enjoy these Realms in perfect Peace and Tranquility.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Town-Hall, this 17th of July, 1727.
